

Professor Peter Draper – is Executive Director of the Institute for International Trade in the Faculty of the Professions, University of Adelaide, Australia.

Peter is a member of the Board of Trustees of the International Chamber of Commerce's Research Foundation; non-resident senior fellow of the Brussels-based European Centre for International Political Economy; Associated Researcher at the German Development Institute (DIE); and a Board member of the Australian Services Roundtable.

Peter is a recipient of an honorary Doctorate degree from the Friederich Schiller University in Jena, Germany.

For ten years Peter was, respectively, member, chair, vice chair, and co-chair of the World Economic Forum's Global Future Council on the Global Trade and FDI system. Peter was also Senior Research Fellow at the South African Institute of International Affairs.

Previously, Peter worked in South Africa's national Department of Trade and Industry in bilateral economic relations (East Asia and Mercosur), and as head of the economic analysis and research unit in the dti's International Trade and Economic Development Division.

Prior to that Peter was an academic teaching economic history and political economy, and headed the Department of Economics and Economic History at the then University of Durban-Westville (now University of KwaZulu-Natal).

Callum McNair advises the Federal Minister for Trade, Tourism and Investment, Senator the Hon Simon Birmingham on a wide variety of matters including, on Australia-Africa trade, investor-state dispute settlement and non-tariff barriers.

Callum previously practised in international commercial arbitration at an international law firm and was the associate to the Honourable Justice Vanstone in the Supreme Court of South Australia.

Callum was also a Pacific Economic Cooperation Council Next Generation Program prize recipient for his paper on Australia's role in creating a Free-Trade Area of the Asia-Pacific. Callum has a Masters of Laws from the University of Melbourne, a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practise from the College of Law, and a Bachelor of Laws with Honors and a Bachelor of International Studies from the University of Adelaide, he is also a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Callum is an Ambassador for HeartKids South Australia.

Catherine Grant is an experienced trade negotiator and trade policy expert having worked in the public, private and academic sectors at multilateral and regional levels.

Catherine is a Director of Tutwa Consulting Group, based in South Africa. Catherine was a diplomat for New Zealand for 10 years, posted in New York and Geneva where Catherine participated in United Nations (human rights and development), World Trade Organisation and International Labour Organisation negotiations.

Since relocating to South Africa in 2000 Catherine has been involved in trade policy development and trade negotiations on behalf of the private sector and as a recognised expert. Catherine has coordinated public-private sector engagements on a wide range of economic policy and trade promotion issues in Southern Africa, including as Secretary of the SADC Employers Group and SADC Business Forum from 2007 to 2010.

Catherine currently co-teaches an MBA elective on Emerging Economies and Globalisation at the Graduate School of Business at the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg and is Head Tutor for the London School of Economics online course on Business, International Relations and Political Economy.

Mike Humphrey is IIT's regional integration specialist.

Mike has over 30 years working experience in Eastern and Southern Africa as well as with the AU Secretariat in the areas of regional integration policy and capacity building, regional and international trade negotiations and trade promotion.

Mike has designed, evaluated or implemented programs in various African countries for most of the major donors supporting trade issues in Africa including AusAID/DFAT, DANIDA, DfID, EU, GIZ, NORAD, SIDA and USAID.

Mike ran the EU support program for the seven SADC countries negotiating an EPA agreement with the EU for over 5 years, was a full-time trade advisor to the Government of Swaziland during 2009 and 2010, has been actively involved in supporting both the Tripartite and the CFTA trade negotiations, and has provided capacity building support to the AU, COMESA, EAC, and SADC Secretariats.

Mike has worked as an advisor to most governments in Eastern and Southern Africa, and with a number of African private sector organisations and their members. Prior to becoming an independent trade consultant in 1996, he was Deputy CEO of Zimbabwe's trade promotion organisation (ZimTrade) for 4 years.

Mike has been involved in the delivery of the Australian Awards Africa Short Course in Trade Policy and Negotiation since 2011, and has taken a leading role in the delivery of this course as Course Director since 2015.

Mike also teaches 'MNCs and Sustainability' as part of IIT's Masters program. Mike holds a BA and Honours degree from the University of the Witwatersrand, an Honours Degree in Economics from the University of Zimbabwe and a Master of Arts degree in African Studies from the University of London.